Welcome Message :

On behalf of all the Otolaryngology Department staff at Cairo University, I warmly welcome you all at the 17th Annual Conference. This year, our conference will be held at the Cairo, Egypt.

The conference will provide us with the opportunity to explore the state of art knowledge in challenging topics of Otolaryngology. Our international speakers will gladly share their valuable experience in all fields, tremendous contribution and their future vision, which will be open for discussion by the audience.

We have an exciting program at the conference. Recent concerns in otology, cochlear implantation, basic and advanced sinus surgery and management of complex head and neck tumors, will be presented and thoroughly discussed at this very special conference.

The weather in Cairo during this time of the year will be exquisite. Wishing you all a productive, fun-filled time and a comfortable stay at the shores of the Nile. Lastly, we would like to thank you all for your contributions which are the foundation of this conference. Looking forward to meeting you all.
