Welcome Message

On behalf of all the Otorhinolaryngology Department staff at Cairo University, I warmly welcome you all at the Kasr El Ainy ENT Scientific Month. This year, our conference will be held at Tolip El-Forsan, Ismailia - Egypt.

The conference will provide us with the opportunity to explore the state of art knowledge in challenging topics of Otorhinolaryngology. Our international speakers will gladly share their valuable experiences in all fields, tremendous contribution and their future vision, which will be open for discussion with the audience.

We have an exciting program at the conference. Recent concerns in otology, cochlear implantation, basic and advanced sinus surgery and management of complex head and neck tumors, will be presented and thoroughly discussed at this very special conference.

The weather in Cairo during this time of the year will be exquisite. Wishing you all a productive, fun-filled time and a comfortable stay contributions which are the foundation of this conference. Looking forward to meeting you all.

Prof. Dr. Usama Abdel Naseer
Chairman of the Otorhinolaryngology
Department Cairo University
